

Wine List

The majority of our wine is Organic, Vegetarian or Vegan, sourced from small, independent growers who make authentic wines. There are no chemical or synthetic additives used in producing them, their purity and length of flavour complementing the subtle but spicy finish of our dishes. Like our food they are easy on your body and leave you feeling refreshed. We find that organic wines generally have a greater depth of flavour than conventional wines, and this works with the flavours of our food.

We choose to work largely with small wine producers who all own their own vineyards. We find they tend to care for their vines better and have more control over the whole wine making process. For this reason too we can better judge how natural the wine is.
