Wine List

All our wine is organic, vegetarian or vegan, sourced from small, independent growers who have complete control over the wine making process. The result is no chemical or synthetic additives, and a purity, depth and length of flavour that complements the subtle but spicy finish of our dishes. Like our food they are easy on the body and leave you feeling refreshed.

WHITE 175ml glass Bottle

Verdejo, El Convertido, La Mancha, Spain £5.50 £20.95
(vegan, organic)

EL Convertido (the convert) is the story of how the world's largest vine growing region, la Mancha, is gradually converting to a more sustainable future. The high plateau vines, with low rainfall and drying winds, make this land ideal for organic viticulture. Clear straw colour in appearance. Very expressive nose of gooseberry, apples and white fruits. Impressively rich, good acidity and fine balance on the palate.

Pinot Grigio, La Jara, Veneto, Italy (vegan, organic) £5.95 £23.50

La Jara is an organically-farmed estate, nestled in the gentle slopes surrounding the river Piave, named after the local limestone-rich, gravel-based soils lining the riverbed. A versatile wine with strong personality. It has an intense perfume with delicate hints of peach and apricots. The palate is soft, harmonic, fruity and fresh long finish.

Picpoul De Pinet, Jean Le Blanc, Languedoc, France (vegan, organic) £6.55 £27.95

Cathy works tirelessly on her tiny Domain with evident passion and love for her land. The philosophy of the Campaucels is built upon the idea of living in the rhythm of the vineyard to achieve the best outcome in the most natural manner possible, wine is pale yellow in appearance with bright, youthful aromas of citrus and hawthorn blossom on the nose. Fresh, lively and elegant on the palate with crisp flavours of grapefruit and acacia and bright acidity lingering on the crisp finish.

Sauvignon Blanc, Bob Short For Kate, Marlborough, New Zealand (vegan, organic) £6.95 £29.95

BOB short for Kate comes from two organic vineyards in the Renwick area - Kennedys RD vineyard in the Omeka valley and the Brink vineyard which is Marlborough's oldest organic vineyard. A lively wine with tropical and citrus fruits with a ripe and juicy palate and a well textured mineral backbone which results in a natural crisp characteristic of the variety that balances lively fruit sweetness.

Riesling, Hartenberg, Stellenbosch, South Africa £34.25
(vegetarian, organic)

Established in 1692, Hartenberg Estate is one of South Africa's oldest wineries with one of the most respected winemakers in the Western Cape at its helm. Immediate aromas of hay, tropical fruits and a hint of lanolin combine with attractive floral notes- lemon blossom and honey suckle. Opulent, creamy and melted on the palate with a flinty character.

Sancerre, Les Caillottes, Loire, France (vegan, organic) £38.95

The Dauny family belongs to a very old family of Sancerre wine growers, whose members have been growing grapes in this region since 1683. A light, refreshing wine to be consumed while young and fresh. Fresh, grassy green aromas follow through the palate, where they are joined by zesty citrus flavours and refreshing acidity on the crispy finish.

ROSÉ

Pinot Grigio Rosato, Veneto, Italy (vegan, organic) £5.95 £23.50

La Jara vineyards are located on the the hillside slopes of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene. The wine has an intense perfume with delicate hints of peach and apricots. The taste is soft, harmonic and fruity with winning acidity. It has a long and persistent finish.

RED

Tempranillo Syrah, Amphorvm Tinto, La Mancha, Spain (vegan, organic) £5.50 £20.95

The Amphorvm wines are made as youthful and vibrant styles from the typical grapes of la Mancha. The wine is a vibrant blend of Tempranillo and Syrah with intense fruity aromas with notes of pear, apricot and citric. Balanced, with sweet and round tannins, with structure and a long after taste.

Merlot, Bella Storia, Veneto, Italy (vegan, organic) £5.95 £23.50

Originally a family business, now with over 2,000 farmers the wines are grown under organic conditions in a highly ethical environment. The quintessential easy-going Merlot is perfect if you're after something light, soft and quaffable. This wine is full, round and well structured with notes of ripe plums and summer fruits.

Shiraz, Rocky Gully, Frankland River, Western Australia (vegetarian) £6.55 £27.95

Rocky gully wines are produced to reflect the unique ironstone soils and the rugged, isolated terrain of the Frankland River region. A middle-weighted palate with bright florals, juicy fruit and a lifted integration of earthy spice note and black pepper. Soft mouth coating tannin, a creamy texture and subtle oak, provides a poised, elegant finish.

Rioja Tinto Qvinto Arrio, Rioja, Spain (vegan, organic) £6.95 £29.95

A young modern style of Rioja, balanced with good body and made with a careful blend of noble Spanish grape varieties. It is cherry red in colour with a medium intensity with spicy clove and vanilla notes. A fresh but full-bodied wine, with smooth tannins and a lengthy finish.

Malbec Chinchero, Mendoza, Argentina (vegan, organic) £34.25

The Vinecol Estate is located in La Paz, at the eastern end of Mendoza which focuses on producing clean wines. It is a purplish colour wine with ruby shades with red fruit, prune and red flowers aroma. A fun to drink wine which is pure, easy and kind on your body and wine.

Chianti, Majnoni Guicciardini, Tuscany, Italy (vegan, organic) £38.95

This 200-hectare estate has belonged to the Guicciardini family since 1870. Now run by the charismatic Pietro Majnoni. The wines of the estate are authentic expressions of traditional Chianti: rustic and charming with balanced fruit and great drinkability. The wine is medium cherry red in colour in appearance with bright, red fruit aromas on the nose, with a hint of white pepper and spice. A medium-bodied and juicy wine on the palate with ripe cherries, plums and wild herbs. Bright acidity keeps the wine in balance, carrying through to the finish.

CHAMPAGNE

Champagne Pierre Moncuit-Delos Grand Cru Mesnil Blanc De Blancs NV, Champagne, France (vegan) £39.95

The Moncuit family has been making superb Champagne in Le Mesnil-sur-Oger, in the heart of Cote des Blancs, for more than 100 years. Nicole Moncuit and her brother Yves are now in charge of the Domaine and make sublimely complex, delicate wines from 20 hectares of Grand Cru vineyards. Pale straw in colour with light, persistent bubbles. Light and lively with aromas of citrus (grapefruit, lemon) and a mineral note, characteristics of the Le Mesnil terroir. The palate of the Cuvee Pierre Moncuit Delos Cru Blanc de Blancs is delicate and refined with citrus and yeasty notes.

It is perfect as an aperitif.

Champagne Joseph Perrier Cuvée Royal Brut NV, Chappagne, France (vegan) £49.95

Founded in 1825, Joseph Perrier has been owned and run by the same family since 1888. The Joseph Perrier house style is fruity with a fine mousse and long refreshing finish which reflects tints of rich-red gold. The name "Cuvée Royale" celebrates the elegance and history of the cuvees once supplied to HRH Queen Victoria and King Edward VII in years gone by. Indeed, the royal connection with this prestigious house have remained strong throughout its continued history. On the nose, the aromas are fine delicate and complex, with notes of apple and pear. Plenty of fresh attack on the palate, lively, supple and round, with a highly refreshing finish. Great for any celebration!
